WILSON TWO-YEAR-OLD SHOWS RETURN OF GOOD FORM OF LAST SPRING.

Defeats Formidable Opposition at Jamestown Impressively—Favorites Fare Poorly—Horsemen Leaving Virginia Track for Jacksonville.

Norfolk, Va., November 9.—Keen racing was the order at the Jamestown Jockey Club's track this fternoon. While the program offered lacked qualty, the fields were well matched and good racing suffice. Short margins separated the first two grees in a majority of the inlishes and fast time as recorded. Form followers found the task of trying to pick winners a difficult proposition, Neoskarda, winner of the closing dash, being the only avorite that won. In the second race another odds-on choice was caten. Stinger looked to hold his company safe in recent form and some of the smart operators expeted 2 to 5 on his chances. Like Wrap, Stinger as never dangerous and the finish also found him third position. The greatty improved Onager won its race from Martin W. Littleton. The Wilson is take from Martin W. Littleton. The Wilson is take been returned winner in both of his recent carts here and looks to have rounded back to the orn he displayed early in the spring, when he ord seven straight victories. Onager will be one of the horses that Tom Henley will send to Jack-myille with A. G. Weston. Another odds-on factive was beaten when Thrifty failed to land in the fifth race. Starter Dade made one of his worst focts in the race, the field being sent away in taggling fashion, with Thrifty hopelessly out of . Quincy Belle left the post to a flying break and select to have a winning lead, but Firewood overabled her in the stretch and outlasted her in the hald drive to win by a head.

Horsemen are already making preparations to alve for Jacksonville. On Sunday the stables of . O. Seully, Albert Simons and E. W. San Francisco, Cal., November 9.—After a consultation with Judge Carroll Cook, special counsel for the New California Jockey Club, George H. "I can only say, in relation to stakeholders, that to layer of bets will be permitted to employ any serson as stakeholder of bets which he may make, any layer or any visitor on the track may make, any layer or any visitor on the track may make consistent or any visitor on the stakeholder. It will not be centitted to register such bets, but, as I am advised y Judge Cook, any two parties making a bet may cell in a third party to hold the stakes, provided his fairly party receives no compensation or remacfation for acting as such stakeholder. AMERICAN ENTRIES IN ENGLISH RACES

In England's five "classics" of next year are quite a goodly representation of American-bred and American-owned horses, many of which are still in this country. It may be that there are American owners now bilssfully ignorant of the fact that their stables shelter two-year-olds eligible to contest next year's Two Thousand, One Thousand, Derby, Oaks or St. Leger, but if is a fact that Runnymede, Candidate, Zillah, Love-Not, Spin, Swannanoa, Blackfriar, Absconder, Labore, Archduke, County Chairman, West Whind, Mu tincer, Seth, Danger Mark, Adam Bede, Tripping, Sweepaway, Cowl, Jest, Fantasque and The Spy, all now in this country in various ownerships, are so engaged. It is not at all probable that they of them will be sent to England. James A. Keene's good colt, Iron Mask, is in the Two Thousand, Derby and St. Leger, and if the New York outlook for racing appears unfavorable next spring might be sent over to meet his engagements, but he is the only one of those now here that has shown form in racing good enough to justify his being sent abroad.

Of horses in England August Belmont has Belfry in the Two Thousand, Derby and St. Leger, and Sands of the Orient in the Derby and ISt. Leger, Both are sons of Rock Sand and have not been raced. Whether they were found wanting in speed or have simply been saved for three-year-old racing is not known. Healing, Mr. Belmont is represented in the One Thousand and Oaks by Sandwich, a daughter of Rock Sand and the Ceriterion Stakes at Newmarket. Besides this important success since also won the Hainaker Plate at Goodwood and the First Nursery Handicap at the Newmarket First cheer meeting. Sandwich is a filly of great speed and beauty and may be Mr. Belmont's best two-year-old.

H. P. Whitney does not appear to have and under two thousand Guineas and the Epson Oaks, is second to man's. He has the Hamburg—Lady Frivoles filly in the One Thousand and the only time she has meet defeat was when St. Nat is the best two-year-old cell fin England and, measured by flat race, she is the be two-year-old yearlings in his stable to his partner. Clarence Waterhouse, who will have full control of the string. Colonel Burns plans to go to Mexico for the winter and will not have an opportunity of taking an active interest in a stable.

Trainers say that there are more horses ready to race at the opening of the Oakland meeting than in any previous season. The early arrival of so many stables from the inter-mountain circuit, as well as middle western and eastern points, combined with the favorable weather, is responsible for the forward condition of the horses.

Jockey Eddie Taplin is at his Fresno home. He will come here after enjoying a rest and will ride for R. J. Mackenzie.

with Western Procedure.

Cincinnati, O., November 9.—Eastern horsemen figured conspicuously in today's results at Latonia. four of their representatives winning purses. Jockey T. Koerner's good riding was also a feature. The Joplin rider piloted four of the afternoon's winners, two of which came from the stable of R. F. Carman. The run-up and purchase of Medallion for an insignificant amount as compared with his original purchase price was an incident. James McCarthy, who is in quest of material to take to South America, did the biddings. The horse was in for $700 and, after his victory. Mr. McCarthy raised the price to $1.200. Captain E. B. Cassatt, who was at the judges' stand, was dilatory with his advance bid, evidently being unfamiliar with the western custom of protecting winners when bid on, and Judge Price knocked the cold down to Mr. McCarthy, Captain Cassatt at this point realized the situation and wanted to make-an advance bid, but was declared to be too late. Captain Cassatt was at first a bit ruffled at having the horse taken away, but finally characterized the transaction as perfectly in order and in conformity with the rules governing selling races. The colt originally cost Captain Cassatt $10,000 and Mr. McCarthy gets a bargain.

JACKSONVILLE OFFICIALS ANNOUNCED.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 9.—Manager H. D. Brown, upon his return from New York yesterday, amounced his list of officials for the meeting this winter at Moncreif Park. Everything is being placed in proper order at the track and when the plant is opened to the public on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day, last year's patrons will notice many improvements that will add to the beauty of the establishment.

GOSSIP FROM LONG ISLAND TRACKS.

New York, November 9.—O. J. Decker, who is training Master Robert at the Gravesend track, intends to ship that horse to Jacksonville tomorrow. John Miller, recently trainer for the Schwartz brothers, has bought two likely-looking two-year-olds from William Lakeland and has made arrangements to ship along with Mr. Decker to Jacksonville. Superintendent James Dunphy has kept the Gravesend track in splendid shape for the horsemen who were training their borses for the winter meetings. Horsemen throughout the country will be glad to hear that Tom Welsh shows a great deal of improvement and that it will not be long before he will be about the Gravesend track handling his large string of horses.

A Paris correspondent reports the sale of the three-year-old colt, Nuage, to the Royal Graditz Stud of the German emperor for the sum of $60,000. Nuage was the winner of the Grand Prix de Paris this year and it was because of that success that he could be sold at such a price. Racing ability is what commands the attention of the managers of the great European establishments, who are good judges of the qualities needed for the improvement of the breed of horses in their own countries, even if a lot of windy persons do think they could teach these men their business.—Toronto Globe, perity of Racing in Argentina.

ASTONISHING PRICES FOR YEARLINGS.

Public Sales Last September Show Remarkable Properity of Racing in Argentina.

In Argentine racing and its adjuncts are in a remarkably prosperous state of development. This is emphasized by the prices paid for yearlings from the leading breeding establishments of that country at the annual September sales. The majority of the studs in the Argentine are not run on the lines of English establishments. Stallions of the caliber of Diamond Jubilee, Jardy, Cyllene and Polar Star are not available to mares other than those belonging to the owners of the horses. This is known as the "lock-up" policy. It accounts in a very large measure for the colossal prices made by the offspring of such sires. The proprietor of a racing stud who wants yearlings by the best-class stallions is compelled to buy at auction. It follows, of course, that by excluding mares belonging to other owners, these Argentine breeders sacrifice many thousands of pounds a year which they might obtain in the shape of service fees, and the yield obtained by the sale of their yearlings must consequently be discounted to that extent. Even so, however, the returns are remarkable, and afford all the proof that is required of the prosperity of the country.

The first four studs to offer their yearlings at Buenos Ayres last month were in the Haras Marie Luisa. whose chief stallion is Clermont, a soh of St. Simon; Cabana Reyles, where Ercildoune is located; the Haras Oriental, where Galloway (by Martagon) stands, and the Haras Las Ortigas, the home of Diamond Jubilee. The highest price given for a Clermont colt was $5,250, and it also happened to be the figure for the son of Galloway which made most money—a colt named Oriental, out of a Minting mare, the buyer being Senor Livingston, the owner of Larrea. The consignment from the Cabana Reyles comprised five colts and seven filles, and which made most money—a colt named Oriental, out of a Minting mare, the buyer being senor Livingston, the owner of Larrea. Orange is, like Old Man, a son of Orbit, and heads the list of winning sires in the Argentine. With reference to the somewhat lower prices made this year by the offspring of Flotsam, the drop is due to the realization of the fact that his stock having been bred in Uruguay, are debarred from a number of races in the Argentine, and are, consequently, placed at a disadvantage with the yearlings bred in Argentina.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Wm. S., Chicago. The Ida Lackford bet lost. Jake, Allegheny, Pa. Yes. There always is in the mutuels.

J. X. K., Louisville, Ky. The horse you backed ran unplaced and the bet lost. Wm. H., Chicago. The correct name of the horse is Monsoon, and as a two-year-old he was a capital

T. W. S., Lincoln, III. If the bets were on Night Mist you should have been paid back $88.50 on the $10 each way bet, and $523.75 on the $75 and $25 bet, Wm. H., Cincinnati, O. Your wager on Heather-broom at Pimlico, October 30, did not lose. It was a draw and your money should have been promptly returned.

Inquisitive, Niagara Falls, N. Y. Cannot say positively, but since the borse was bred, raised and raced in California it is altogether likely that it was named after a Californian.

E. St. R., Chicago. The bookmaker was wrong and both the Hallack and Rogon winnings were "coming" and applicable to make the Stoneman bet, which should be pald in full.

SENATOR AGNEW FAILS OF RE-ELECTION.

Senator George B. Agnew, one of the sponsors for the Hughes anti-racing legislation embodied in the Hart-Agnew and Agnew-Perkins laws, was among the Republicans who were beaten for re-election in New York City Tuesday, and this notwithstanding that the district which he represented is nominally Republican by a great majority. The outcome of the election in New York leads to the hope that some relief may be obtained by the sport-loving public of the metropolis from the oppressive provisions of the Hughes legislation.
